

5511 DRESS AND GROOMING

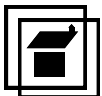

The following dress code was developed by the students, parent(s) or legal guardian(s), and faculty. If there are any problems with attire not addressed below, the administration will deal with individuals on a one-to-one basis.

Acceptable Attire

1. Shirts that go from the clavicle to the waistband of pants when in relaxed position;
2. Net shirts – only with acceptable garment under or over them;
3. Shorts and skirts that reach the fingertips in length when in relaxed position;
4. T-shirts – must have sleeves;
5. Blazers or sports coats that are part of an outfit; and
6. Tank tops with a two-inch band.

Unacceptable Attire

1. T-shirts with double meaning, crude phrases, or alcoholic messages or promoting other substance abuse;
2. Running shorts/short shorts;
3. Sunglasses;
4. Hats, bandannas and other head coverings;
5. Undergarments worn as outer garments;
6. Boxer shorts;
7. Torn clothes;
8. Winter outerwear worn to class (coats, etc.);

9. Pajamas and/or slippers and flip flops;
10. Chains, pointed rings, dog collars, bullet belts;
11. Tube tops; and
12. Low cut tops.
13. Clothing with images and/or messages that could potentially disrupt the learning environment.

Students failing to abide by the dress code will be required to change into appropriate attire or sent home. Work missed from class will be the student's responsibility.

Student Deliveries

No deliveries for students (balloons, flowers, candy, food, etc.) will be accepted by the Main office.
